

THE MARSHALL REPUBLICAN.

IN THE COUNTY HERNDON.

Died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Masters 1½ miles west of here on Tuesday morning about 7 o'clock, Arthur J. Masters, aged about 18 years. Deceased was stricken with typhoid fever about two months ago; he improved and was able to sit up a little when he took a relapse which gradually carried him away. Funeral and burial at Hazel Grove on Wednesday. The family have the sympathy of the entire community in this their sad bereavement.

Married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary Mayes on Sunday the 17th inst at 6 o'clock, Chas Aldridge and Miss Hattie Mayes, Rev. Orrison officiating. The bride and groom are both very highly respected young people of this vicinity and have a host of friends who join in wishing for them a long, happy and prosperous life.

The A.W.A. at their first meeting in Dec., elected the following officers: J. H. Stephens, V. C. Walter Keith, W. A.; W. H. Higgins, clerk; G. H. Penwick, escort; T. M. Higgins, Banker; S. L. Herndon, Chief Postmaster; J. P. Higgins, watchman; and W. J. Chamberlain, Sentry.

J. H. Samples and family have moved to Lindsey, Kan. Mr. Samples was a large cattle feeder and the community will miss him badly, unless we can be fortunate enough to get someone in his place who will buy the surplus corn and hogs.

J. A. O'Neil and family returned last week from Oklahoma. He says the country is badly over-run where he was and that you could not get houses anywhere. He shipped his goods back to Sedalia and drove through empty.

The Odd Fellows at their first meeting in Dec. elected officers as follows: S. L. Yorkey, N. G.; H. S. Taylor, V. G.; Z. F. Taylor, Secy.; E. S. Herndon, Treasurer.

Miss Sue Hanna, who has been visiting Miss Virgie Wheeler for several days, returned to her home near Miami last week.

J. T. Stephens has bought his father's farm about 1 mile west of here, who moved to town a few days ago.

Rev. H. D. Kennedy filled his regular appointment at the C. P. church Sunday and Sunday night.

S. L. Pile and Phil Slifer attended the horse sale of the latter's father at Slater Tuesday.

Dr. G. Huff who has been in Kansas City for about 3 months, returned home Wednesday.

SHACKELFORD.

The Baptist church at this place will give a Xmas tree on Saturday evening, the 23rd. A splendid program is being prepared which we commence at 7:30 P.M. All are cordially invited to come. All presents given to the committee will be carefully placed on the tree.

The Operator, Lulu Marshall, left Wednesday for Odessa, where he will spend the holidays. E. A. Elliot, of Higginsville, will fill Mr. Marshall's place.

Miss LouLou Tickemeyer, after a pleasant visit to friends in St. Louis, returned home Sunday for the holidays.

J. J. Mitchell has rented his farm to F. E. Mitchell and will move to Marshall in the Spring.

Mesdames Turley, Rigney and Hilderbrand were shopping in Marshall Saturday.

Mrs. R. M. Smith and daughter, Miss Maude were shopping in Marshall Monday.

Highest price paid for game and all country produce at J. C. Maloney & Co's.

Miss Violet Hansberger took the train here for Marshall Wednesday.

John Hilderbrand shipped one car load of hogs from here Monday.

A Merry Xmas and a happy New Year to all our readers.

Jas Welch, of Salt Springs, was here Tuesday.

MALTABEND.

Cards are out announcing the wedding of Dr. E. Miller to Miss Pet Jeter, Tuesday 20th at 7:30 p.m. They will be at home at Nakita, Oklahoma, Jan 4, 1900.

Reese McNeese of Lamotte is here prospecting as to the advisability of starting a grain dealer's office here.

The different Sunday schools will have short programs and treats for the scholars Christmas night.

Mrs. Maude Haskin will come in from Kansas to spend the holidays with her parents, S. T. Wilson.

Rev. C. C. James and family will spend the holidays with his parents in St. Louis.

Wm Schepers and S. T. Wilson shipped out a lot of porkers to K. C. Tuesday.

Mrs. Thos. Malter was visiting in Marshall the first of the week.

Mrs. W. H. Lunbeck is visiting her parents at Corder.

If rumor has it right, more wedding bells will soon ring.

J. Q. Jones shipped cattle to Chicago Monday night.

A. B. Corte of Mt. Leonard was in town Wednesday.

Walter Lunbeck is in Chicago this week.

Eb Rosell is in Kansas this week, E. S. Meier has moved to Marshall.

Haynie Bros for high grade coffee at 20¢ bottom prices.

Schlueter will make special wholesale prices to schools and churches.

R. O. Wright Jr., L. B. Ashurst and J. Hayes, of Mt. Leonard, were in Marshall Saturday.

Nothing cheap but the prices with the Graham Earle Co. Opera House all next week.

John F. Robertson, of St. Louis, was guest Saturday and Sunday of his sister Mrs. John H. Conway.

Prof. Rockwell, formerly of the Moody Institution Chicago, who has charge of the music at the Mission church, is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. E. Leach, of this city.

SALT SPRINGS

E. E. Kennedy shipped his household goods to Armstrong Monday, where he will reside permanently. Mrs. Kennedy and children are visiting her mother, Mrs. Sarah King at Marshall, and will join her husband the latter part of the week. We are sorry to lose Mr. Kennedy and his estimable wife, and wish them success in their new home.

Len Smith is a candidate for constable of Elmwood township. Mr. Smith is a genuine "old time" Jeffersonian democrat and will make a model officer.

The Christian Endeavorers will give a social at the home of J. A. Orr on Wednesday evening, Dec. 27. A good time is anticipated. All are cordially invited.

Invitations are out announcing the 5th anniversary of the marriage of Wm. Spencer and wife, at the home of G. O. Thornton on Tuesday, Dec. 26.

Madame Rumor says that Dr. Tom McLeaven has purchased the old Standard Telephone line between Mt. Leonard and Salt Springs.

Wm. Rader, Fergus Orr, Henry Bauers, Robert Martin and brother, walked to Shackelford via railroad to preaching last Sunday.

Mrs. Tom Falkerson, who has been here visiting relatives, returned Tuesday to her home in Harrison county.

The scholars presented as a Xmas present to their teacher, Prof. Campbell a set of George Eliot's works.

A. Ransberger was in K. C. on Tuesday buying more stock cattle.

Miss Ida Wood of Marshall, spent a few days of last week visiting J. H. Galloway's family.

S. Scarborough has black leg among his calves. He is having them vaccinated this week.

A crowd of our young people were skating last Friday night on Mr. Welch's pond.

Any one having a cheap saddle for sale can do some business with Pete Falkerson.

Wm. McClelland went to Armstrong Wednesday to assist E. Kennedy in moving.

J. P. Falkerson returned from near Versailles last week with 20 cattle and 4 mares.

Henry Bauers and Wm. Rader have rented the Galloway farm for the next year.

Dick Reed and family of Blackburn were visiting relatives here last week.

David and Cameron Orr are expected home from Park College Saturday.

R. W. Cowan has been near Cole Camp looking for mules.

Mrs. James Orr has issued invitations for a Xmas dinner.

BLACKBURN

Wedding bells again.

Mrs. Joe Francisco and daughters, Miss Essie and little Mary Olive went to Marshall Saturday where little Mary Olive took the train for Nelson, where she will visit her sister, Miss Alma, who is primary teacher there. Miss Essie and mother returned home after a short stay in Marshall.

A great surprise to the people of Blackburn was the marriage of Percy Patrick, of Sweet Springs and Miss Hattie Beamer, Blackburn, at Kansas City last week.

A large number of the society people of Blackburn have received invitations to the masquerade ball to be given by Mrs. Gill Goodwin on Thursday 28th.

James Hunter and little niece, Marie Hunter came down from K. C. Sunday and remained until Tuesday with James' mother, Mrs. L. Hunter.

Pro. McGarvey Major of California and Miss Lydia Wallace of the country will wed at the Episcopal church here on Wednesday, Dec. 27.

Miss Mae Bothe returned to her home in St. Louis Wednesday, after spending the summer with W. A. Giddens and wife.

Rev. Norbert, Misses Dora Story and Lura Lillard Sundayed at the home of Miss Annie Hollins.

Mrs. Maude Blackford returned Saturday from Mt. Leonard where she has been visiting Mrs. Kays.

Mrs. John Harrison and children were in Marshall several days the first of the week.

Members of the evangelical Sunday school are practicing for Xmas entertainment.

Miss Bird Logsdon arrived in our city from Marshall Sunday on the 4 o'clock.

Robt. Campbell, Sr., of Marshall, spent Sunday with Mrs. B. M. Spotts and family.

The Presbyterian will treat their Sunday school to candy and oranges Xmas.

Will Kincaid and R. P. Spencer of Marshall spent Sunday eve in Blackburn.

John Wallace and Sam Webb went to Marshall shopping Tuesday.

Miss Eliza Swift sent 110 dressed turkeys to K. C. this week.

Miss Bradley of the city is the guest of Miss Ida See Field.

Friday next is visitors day at Blackburn public school.

Tom Blackford had stock on K. C. market Friday.

M. K. Lillard went to K. C. with stock Friday.

T. C. Cox of K. C. was in our midst this week.

Ella Cable was trading in K. C. Friday.

Xmas trade is quite brisk.

We are exclusive agents for Lowrie's Candles, hence get them fresh from factory.

Schlueter & Co.

Wright's is headquarters for ladies buying Christmas presents.

Mrs. Belle Graves and Mrs. James Dan Akins, from Humansville, recent arrivals—they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. Graves on South Lafayette St., and other relatives while in the city.

Something ENTIRELY NEW in ladies fancy combs at Wright's.